QualySense elects Markus Schnurrenberger to its Board of Directors

QualySense, an EMPA-based start-up company focused on innovative grain and seeds sorting technology, announces that it has elected Markus Schnurrenberger as a member of the Board of Directors. Markus Schnurrenberger brings in 20 years experience in corporate, commercial and contract law. In his career, he has been board member in several Swiss SMEs. In addition, Markus Schnurrenberger is currently Vice President of the Lawyer Examination Board of the Canton Zug.

The CEO and founder of QualySense, Dr. Francesco Dell'Endice, says: «We are very happy that we could win Markus for our Board. His involvement will further strengthen our legal competences and help QualySense significantly with respect to negotiating and structuring the various pending strategic partnerships».

He joins on the board Alberto Romaneschi (Chairman), Dr. Stefan Blarer and Dr. Francesco Dell'Endice.

About QualySense

QualySense is an EMPA-based start-up company co-founded in 2010 by Dr. Francesco Dell'Endice, a former calibration scientist at the University of Zurich. Together with his team he aims to become the innovation leader in developing and marketing high-capacity sorting devices for quality and safety control of agricultural products. The unique and proprietary devices enable sorting grains, seeds and beans reliably by biochemical properties. QualySense is a Venture Kick winner of 2010 and a finalist of the Swiss Technology Award 2010 in the seed category and carries the CTI Start-up Label.
